

Hear from past
Citizens' Academy participants:

*"I would encourage anyone and everyone
to get into this class..."*

"...so pleased with what they were presenting...it far exceeded my expectations."

*"It was one of the best courses
I have ever taken..."*

*"It was wonderful that City officials took the time out to present
the information to us..."*

2017 Citizens' Academy Application

What is Citizens' Academy?

The Citizens' Academy is an intensive and informative course that presents a detailed overview of City services and policies. The Academy includes presentations, tours and activities by City staff designed to increase citizens' awareness of Savannah's local government. Dinner and course curriculum will be provided. There is a $5 charge for participation.

The next class will begin on Tuesday, May 2 and end on Tuesday, May 30 (Class meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays). Slots are available for the 2017 academy and will be filled on a first come, first served basis. The application deadline is Apr. 28. Only City of Savannah residents are eligible to participate.

Under the Gold Dome

Start your session with a history/tour of Savannah's seat of government.

How We Spend Your Money

The City spends more than $50 million annually on citywide projects. See the largest one to date.

Public Safety

Meet at Police and Fire headquarters to see how we keep the City safe from crime and fire.

Water World

Ever wonder what happens after the flush? You'll learn that and more in this session.

In Your Neighborhood

Take a ride through our neighborhoods and see what the City is doing to bring them back.

Talking Trash

Learn about what the City is doing to stay clean and green.

City At Play

The City puts on plays, runs camps, offers lessons and teaches new skills. Get an overview, and get your hands dirty in this special class.
