FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: How will I know if my vehicle has been deemed derelict or abandoned?

A: A City of Savannah Code Officer will identify any violations and affix two forms to the vehicle: White and Gold.

Q: If my vehicle is tagged, what do I have to do before it is towed?

A: Contact the Code Officer immediately after receiving notification. The location of the vehicle on public or private property will determine the time frame for compliance.

Q: What happens to my vehicle if it gets towed?

A: Once the vehicle is removed, it will be stored at the contractor's impounding lot. Upon providing proof of ownership and paying all towing and storage fees, the vehicle can be returned. Failure to claim the vehicle within 30 days can result in the sale or disposal of the vehicle by the contractor.

Q: Will I be fined or charged if I don't want the vehicle back?

A: No, You will only be charged if you wish to retrieve your vehicle from impound.

Q: What if I move the vehicle to my backyard and cover it?

A: All vehicles must adhere to the ordinance unless enclosed in an approved accessory structure. Failure to comply will result in a Recorder's Court Hearing in which fines of up to $1,000 or 30 days in jail may be imposed.

CRITERIA FOR ABANDONED & DERELICT VEHICLES

- A motor vehicle which is inoperative, unlicensed, in a state of major disassembly, disrepair, or in the process of being stripped or dismantled.
- A vehicle which is unattended on a public street, road, or highway or other public property for a period of at least five days and when it reasonably appears to a code enforcement or law enforcement officer that the individual who left such motor vehicle unattended does not intend to return and remove such motor vehicle.

The Code Officer will retain a carbon copy of the WHITE vehicle identification form. This document will contain all vehicle information and location. An electronic case will be created for documentation and tracking.
