

Policy for Documenting Buildings Prior to Demolition

Prior to the approval the demolition of structures that are 50 years or older, the City requires that the following items be submitted as part of the permit application:

1. Photographs: Thorough documentation of the entire site, exterior, and interior of the building. This includes but is not limited to:
 - a. each exterior façade; each interior room; and
 - b. and additional photographs of significant exterior and interior details.

All photographs shall be in color, labeled to identify what each photo is showing, and have a minimum resolution of 300 pixels per inch or larger.

2. Scaled Site Plan: Indicate lot dimensions, property lines, location and dimensions of existing building(s) on the lot.
3. Scaled Floor Plans: Indicate all rooms on each floor, including basements and attics, and locating doors and windows.
4. Scaled Exterior Elevations: Indicate floor-to-floor heights; locate all windows, doors, and other façade openings. Show windows, doors, shutters, porches, balconies, railings, and all other appurtenances in detail.

One hardcopy and one digital copy (in TIF, JPG, or PDF format) must be submitted. Once received, the City will forward the information to the City's Municipal Archives Department prior to the issuance of a demolition permit.

All materials must meet the Municipal and the donor will be required to sign and submit a Deed of Gift for the Municipal Archives Collecting Policy and the donor submit a Deed of Gift for the Municipal Archives at the time of documentation submission.

The Municipal Archives: collects, manages, preserves and makes accessible records documenting the City of Savannah's history; administers the records management program and the City Records Center to increase the efficiency of City agencies; and shares the City's history with City employees, citizens and visitors through outreach activities.

COLLECTING POLICY: Non-City Properties Documentation

In keeping with our mission to preserve and make accessible records documenting the City of Savannah's history (both the history of the City government and the larger Savannah community), the Municipal Archives will accept transfers of architectural collections documenting structures from private entities upon recommendation of the Savannah City Manager, the Savannah City Council, the Chatham County-Savannah Metropolitan Planning Commission's Urban Planning and Historic Preservation division, or the Savannah Historic District Board of Review that meet the following criteria*:

1. Document structures within the City limits at the time of the records transfer
2. Document structures identified as contributing to one of Savannah's locally or nationally registered historic districts
or
Document structures along corridors and in areas identified by the City of Savannah for community revitalization efforts including, but not limited to: Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd; Montgomery Street; Waters Avenue; Augusta Avenue; Victory Drive
or
Document government structures (Federal, County or City)
or
Document major public/community landmarks

The Municipal Archives will accept the following materials and formats:

1. Paper: originals or copies of plans, drawings, photographs, and historical research that document the structure
2. Electronic: TIF, JPG, or PDF files (ftp transfer) of plans, drawings, photographs and historical research that document the structure*

Accepted transfers will become part of the following collections, as appropriate based on records transferred:

Record Series 1121-061, Architectural Drawings and Plans (Non-City Properties) and/or
Savannah Area Local Reference Files

At the time of transfer, the donor will be required to sign a Deed of Gift with the Municipal Archives transferring both physical and legal custody of the materials to the City of Savannah.

The Municipal Archives reserves the right to refuse a transfer deemed inappropriate for the collection, or which we cannot adequately house, preserve and provide access to according to our policies and accepted best practices for archival institutions. If we refuse a collection, we will recommend another area repository which may be appropriate for the collection. Additional electronic formats will be considered on a case-by-case basis.*
