Old Slave Huts at The Hermitage, Savannah, Ga.—72

The Hermitage, famous plantation and estate of the McAlpin family since 1819. Present mansion built 1880, plantation settled 1783, and consists of 500 acres with River front. Many of the old slave huts and plantation buildings standing and carefully preserved can be viewed. Is probably the most famous and representative of ante-bellum plantations of the South.

SAVANNAH.

Savannah is rich in historical lore, is a city of 92,000 people and is known for its beautiful buildings, semi-tropical verdure, 24 municipal parks and 100 mile boulevard chain, nine suburban resorts, golf and outdoor sports, modern hotels and varied amusements. The climate is ideal, the city is both winter and summer resort and the Atlantic Ocean contributes surf bathing unexcelled in the South. It is indeed, "Savannah, the Southern Key to Land and Sea."

SAVANNAH, GEORGIA. OLD ROW OF SLAVE CABINS AT THE HERMITAGE. A relic of ante-bellum days now a curiosity even in the south. Near the "Great House" of the planter and reminiscent of the good old days "Belo de wah". Reached from Savannah through an ancient wood-road sheltered by mighty oaks centuries old.
