Too bad Clarence you can't be in my class, this is a great place, sitting in the shade of the old Palm tree, the weather is just delectable down here about seventy above today I can lay out in the grass and laugh at your poor yellow-r going around Boston freezing your ears off. To every body in the house. Best regards Happier times will write later

Savannah, the Forest City, referred to by travellers as "The Paris of the South," is, next to Washington, the most beautiful and unique city in America; has retained and extended its magnificent system of streets, parks and squares, originally designed by Gen. James Oglethorpe, founder of the city, nearly 200 years ago. The broad, well paved streets are lined with thousands of beautiful shade trees and attractive homes.
