Record Series #: 5600CL

Name: City of Savannah, Georgia Records – Clerk of Council

Dates: 1790-1935, no date

Extent/Size: 325 volumes, 13 folders, 1 document case, 27 reels of microfilm (76.24 cubic feet)

Organizational History:

The office of the Clerk of Council was created by the first City Council in 1790. The first Clerk elected by that Council, John Gibbons, served as both Clerk and Treasurer for the new municipal government (Gamble, pp. 48-49).

Ordinances of 1839, 1857, 1858, 1860, and 1917 outlined the responsibilities of the Clerk through the years as follows: to receive applications and petitions of citizens and present them to the Council; to attend and record the proceedings of Council meetings; to keep valuable City documents in fire-proof safes; to swear in City officials and police officers; to advertise City elections; to attend Police Court, and record and submit the proceedings to Council; to make an annual report on the condition of the City's records; to make out, attest, and record the titles to purchases of City lots; to maintain dry culture contracts; to maintain City contracts and cemetery deed books; to issue liquor licenses; to attest to City bonds; to sell badges (for licensing and identification) to vendors, for negroes to work, and to free persons of color; to keep a register of free persons of color; to receive port reports; to issue passports; to keep a bound, indexed book of real property owned by the City; to keep a record of purchases and conveyances of the City and of leases, encumbrances, or liens; and to license anyone in possession of ammunition (Code of Savannah 1858, p.107, 109; Code of Savannah 1871, pp. 139-142; Code of Savannah 1918, p. 114).

As the official record keeper, the Clerk of Council continues to be responsible for maintaining all official codes, ordinances, records and documents, and serving as supervisor of City elections (2008 Service Program and Budget, p. 46).

MICROFILM ON DEPOSIT AT THE BULL STREET LIBRARY FOR RESEARCH USE
2002 Bull Street, Savannah, GA 31401, (912) 652-3697

Sub-series description:

Sub-series 5600CL-005 (mf) Minute Books (1790-1900) includes twenty-four microfilm reels of City Council minutes and indexes. These minutes record the business of the City Council, including date of meeting, who was present, committee reports, and public petitions. The index, at the beginning of each book, includes the date, name of petitioner, and the subject of the petition. Minutes from meetings for several years were copied in two books, leading to an overlap in dates for several books. Until 1883, minute books had internal indexes; minute books dating from 1883 were indexed in separate volumes.

Notes:

Both minute books and index volumes were microfilmed onto 24 rolls on November 7, 1991.

MICROFILM ON DEPOSIT AT THE BULL STREET LIBRARY FOR RESEARCH USE
2002 Bull Street, Savannah, GA 31401, (912) 652-3697

Sub-series description:

Sub-series 5600CL-130 Registers of Free Persons of Color (1817, 1823-1856, 1860-1861, 1863-1864) includes five volumes and three microfilm rolls of registers maintained by the Clerk of Council documenting free persons of color in Savannah. According to a City ordinance of 1839, owners of slaves and guardians of free persons of color were required to register and obtain badges from the Clerk of Council before hiring out or permitting the employment of their charges. Badges were only to be issued to "old, decrepit, and infirm" individuals for purposes of vending.

All free persons of color 16 years of age (lowered to 14 in 1854) or older were required to register annually with the Clerk of Council. Notice of removal from the city was also required. By state law, all registered free persons of color between the ages of 15 and 60 were liable for public service in the county/city of their residence for an annual term not to exceed 20 days. If a person of color entered and remained in the state and failed to register, he/she faced arrest, trial, a fine of $100, and/or punishment of labor (Savannah Ordinances 1854, pp. 339, 342, 347; Code of Savannah 1858, pp. 174-77).

The information in each volume varies. Volume 1 (1817, 1823-1829, 1835) includes name, place of residence, occupation, property owned, and name of guardian. Volume 2 (1828-1835) includes name, place of residence, name of guardian, occupation, and remarks. It also contains a register of aliens who declared their intent to not become U.S. citizens for 1824-1856 (3 pages). Volume 3 (1828-1847) includes name, place of birth, place of residence, occupation, name of guardian, and date qualified. Volume 4 (1837-1849) includes name, place of birth, date of arrival, occupation, name of guardian, and date appointed. Volume 5 (1861, 1863-1864) includes name, age, parentage, place of birth, place of residence, occupation, description, and name of guardian.

Note:

All five volumes, plus a sixth volume not held in Record Series 5600CL City of Savannah, Georgia Records – Clerk of Council, were microfilmed onto three rolls in 1960 by the Georgia Department of Archives and History.

Sub-series #: 5600CL-150

Name: Voter Registration Registers

Dates: 1856-1917, no date

Extent/Size: 113 volumes (13.0 cubic feet)

Sub-series description:

Sub-series 5600CL-150 Voter Registration Registers (1856-1917, no date) includes 113 volumes, divided into six sub-series by record type, documenting voter registration for Savannah municipal elections. To be qualified to register to vote in Savannah municipal elections, an individual was required to: be a citizen of the United States; have resided in the State of Georgia for one year preceding the election; have resided within the corporate limits of Savannah for one month (extended to six months in 1900) prior to the election; have attained the age of 21; and have paid all City taxes. The Clerk of Council opened the voter registration list on the first Monday in January of each year and kept it open until the first Monday in September. The list was then published in one of the local newspapers (Code of Savannah 1871, pp. 3-5; Code of Savannah 1907, p. 11).
