Name: City of Savannah, Georgia Records – Mayor’s Office

Dates: 1817-1953, 1955-1966, 1970-1979, no date

Extent/Size: 262 volumes [191 archival, 71 access copies] and 5 document cases (21.4 cubic feet [17.9 archival; 3.5 access copies])

Organizational History:

On December 23, 1789, the Act of Incorporation for the City of Savannah was signed by Governor Edward Telfair. Under this act one alderman was to be elected annually from each ward to form a Board of Aldermen. The aldermen would then choose the mayor from their board. The first municipal election took place in March 1790, and John Houstoun was chosen as the first mayor of the City of Savannah (Gamble, pp. 3, 48). In 1843, the legislature reduced the number of aldermen from fourteen to twelve and made the mayorship an elected office (Code of Savannah 1858, p. 318). In addition to managing the City government, the Mayor's responsibilities have included presiding as judge over the Police Court and heading the Police Department. After 1845, the Mayor was required to publish an annual report on the status of the City, including reports on the various municipal departments (Code of Savannah 1858, p. 318; Code of Savannah 1918, p. 101).

Since 1954, Savannah's City government has operated under a council-manager system of government (Urban, Serving Savannah, p. 2). While the Mayor is the official head of the City, the City Manager is the chief executive officer and the head of the administrative branch of the City government, responsible to the Mayor and Aldermen "for implementing the programs and policies that they adopt" (Urban, p. 2). The Mayor presides at all City Council meetings, where he has a voice and a vote. In times of emergency he can, with the Council's consent, take command of the police and rule by proclamation to maintain order (Code of Savannah 1958, pp. 28-33).

Sub-series #: 5600MY-050/5600MY-060

Name: Mayor's Annual Reports/Municipal Annual Reports

Dates: 1855-1953 (some gaps)

Extent/Size: 229 volumes [158 archival; 71 access copies] (14.1 cubic feet [10.6 archival; 3.5 access copies])

Sub-series description:

Sub-series 5600MY-050/5600MY-060 Mayor's Annual Reports/Municipal Annual Reports (1855-1953, some gaps) includes 158 archival volumes and 71 access photocopied volumes of annual reports prepared by and for the Mayor's Office and published by the City on an annual basis. Since 1845, the City of Savannah has issued an annual report chronicling the functions and activities of the various City departments. The annual reports include the Mayor's Annual Report summarizing the goals and accomplishments of the City in the previous year, supported by annual reports from the existing departments (for example, the Fire Department, Police Department, Water Works, City Attorney, City Market, Harbor Master, Sinking Fund, charitable institutions, etc.) and the financial report accounting for the receipts and expenditures of the City. The sitting Mayor's name is on the title page of each report. Several volumes include black and white images of City buildings, aldermen, and City officials (specifically 1900, 1905).

There are no known existing copies of the annual reports prior to 1854, and none for 1859, 1864-1865, and 1918-1922. There are no known existing copies of the annual reports after 1923, with the exception of the Mayor's Annual Report (see Access Set Inventory for available years). In 1955, the annual report function was taken over by the City Manager's office.

Note:

The archival volumes for this sub-series are inventoried and shelved as Record Series 0120-022 City of Savannah, Research Library and Municipal Archives – Annual Mayor's/Municipal Reports. The archival inventory indicates which boxes in this series specific annual reports can be found in (in some cases there are multiple copies of a single report found in more than one box).

The access volumes include photocopies of all known annual reports from Georgia institutions, filling in gaps in the archival collection. They are housed in the Research Library and Municipal Archives for reference use. Please use the access copies for research (the access set inventory precedes the archival inventory in the following pages).
